Pastor's Corner

We are in many relationships in our everyday lives. Some are more near and dear. Some are just because of family and some are because of careers. In relationships, there are many components that make it up. One of the most important aspects of a relationship is communication. Many marriages fail and have extreme difficulty because of the failure to communicate. The one relationship that we have that should mean more than all is our relationship with Jesus Christ. May I ask, "How is your relationship?" Then would we get the same answer from Jesus? Many claim to have a relationship with Jesus Christ, yet they spend no time with Him. They do not communicate with Him. Our communication is in the Bible and on our knees. It is time that the church get on their knees and spend time with God!
